Team

Talented, dedicated, born to code – we enjoy writing clean, quality code and delivering great software as much as your developers do.

We trust that giving people the freedom to do what they want brings out the best in them. And every problem that arises should be viewed as a new challenge, an opportunity to improve, a chance to innovate. Each person has their own drive and ambitions, but we asked each and every one, what makes JetBrains special for them. Most frequently used terms were Authenticity, Independence, Learning, and Fun.
